VIOLATION OF ARTICLE NO.: 8.5 SECTION NO.: Meal Periods SENIORITY DATE: 03/2019

GRIEVANCE:

On 01/11/2026 between approximately 18:30 and 22:45 during the evening sort in Small Sort, management required continuous work without providing the contractual 30-minute meal period. The grievant worked more than five consecutive hours with no meal break provided or paid. This violates the collective bargaining agreement (CBA) Article 8.5 (Meal Periods).

As a result, the grievant is entitled to penalty pay as defined by the agreement for a missed meal period. Co-workers on the same belt also reported the missed meal; timecard and supervisor logs will confirm the continuous work from 18:30 to 22:45 with no deduction for a meal.

Do you wish to be present at any hearing that may be scheduled? ☒ Yes ☐ No

ADJUSTMENT REQUESTED:

Grant penalty pay for a missed meal period per CBA (30 minutes at the contractual penalty rate), make the grievant whole for any related losses, and issue a cease-and-desist with a reminder to schedule timely meal periods.
